

ATTENTION WEAVERS AND ALL FIBER ARTISTS
Join us at the Weave a Real Peace Annual Meeting
June 7 – 10, 2018 in Decorah, Iowa

Decorah is home to the Vesterheim, the National Norwegian-American Museum and Heritage Center. We'll spend several hours at the museum exhibits, especially the textiles! The local Oneota Weavers Guild will give demonstrations, and behind-the-scenes tours, as well. Learn more at <http://vesterheim.org/>.

Our main topic this year is sustainability, of culture, tradition, the environment, and communities. Please plan to join us - for informative presentations, tours, our marketplace, filled with fair-trade goods, and our silent auction! You will make new wonderful life-long friends, and depart with great inspiration and new ideas.

Registration opens on February 28 – go to <http://weavearealpeace.org>.

Costs: Total per person costs will range between $375 to $500, depending on your accommodations. WARP provides registration scholarships for students in textile arts programs, see our website above for more information. Deadline to apply is end of March 2018.

Location and Travel: Decorah is on Iowa State Route 9, near the junction with IRS-52, in the north-east corner of Iowa, near the borders with Minnesota and Wisconsin. Three airports serve the area: Waterloo, IA, (77 miles from Decorah), LaCrosse, WI (56 miles), and Rochester, MN (71 miles). Decorah is a 3 hour drive from Madison, WI and from Minneapolis, and a 5 hour drive from Chicago, each of which have airports served by more than one airline. See more information at <http://www.visit-decorah.com/travel-directions>

WARP's Mission is to foster a global network of enthusiasts who value the importance of textiles to grassroots economies. Our Annual Meetings are held in places with rich textile resources, intended to motivate and teach, to offer inspiration and opportunities to learn and network with others who share our values. We are an IRS designated 501-(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
